*Budgets were awarded to some clubs at the recent budget hearing. Just under $1,000 was given out to various clubs.

*Office Hours 5-6 p.m. Thursday

Publicity Director, Phil Feichtner:

*Office Hours: 1-2 Tuesday

Secretary, Justin Parietti:

*Office hours 12:20-1:10 Monday.

*Will be unable to attend senate a lot this year due to class conflicts. Email me with any questions you may have during the semester (jcp3).

Vice President, Laura Findlay:

*Work on Ade is continuing. Would like to start using the space for events. Contact Laura if you would like to cosponsor an event with Senate. Funds are available for this.

*Office Hours 2:45 on Monday

President, Nate Kisselburgh:

*Office Hours: Monday at 2:45pm

*The schedule for the gyms and fields are posted. Clubs can now sign up for slots that are not taken. The field will then be reserved for you. Sports will only be able to kick you out in extremely rare circumstances. Talk to Jerry Kernan to reserve a slot.

*The fitness center is now open until 10pm. No teams will schedule their lifts during this time. If we don't use it between 9 and 10pm we will lose this hour.

*Asked for a motion to propose a resolution protecting Davis.

Motion: Motion to make a resolution to keep Davis up until an alternate facility is build AND open. – Passed è It will now be investigated by the exec. board.

*Finance Committee – need to replace K.C. – Eric Ramos and Tom Flemming nominated – Eric elected.

7) Open Forum – 8:50 pm

*During the asbestos abatement in Harder, a new valve was placed on a heating pipe that resonates and causes vibrations throughout the entire building. This is a huge problem and has rendered the sound studio completely useless. Physical plant has been unresponsive to requests to fix this problem. Nate Kisselburgh will be looking into the issue and reporting back.

Motion – move directly to announcements – passed.

8) Announcements - 8:53pm
